

say that is true.

Gertrude had thought she might come up this week-end, but she heard the weather report and decided she would stay at home. That I heartily agreed was the best thing for her to do, for much as I want her, I don't want her to take chances on slippery roads when it isn't absolutely necessary.

I used to know Mary Thomas very well, as she was a teacher who lived on River St., but what became of her, I do not know. I will ask Mrs. Prince, but when I think of calling her, she is at work, or it is too late and I do not want to disturb her.

Rest assured I'll be most happy to act as a guide at any time only so there is someone along who knows the way.

First day of spring! ?

Now to prove that sometimes I get things straight and really do my homework, I'll give the reports if only
